Scott

Look at you; look at me.
Walkin' ten feet tall are we,
Smilin' silly smiles all day.
How'd we ever get that way?

Look at them look at us,
Wonderin' why we make this fuss,
Starin' like we're not all there,
Like loony birds are everywhere.

Can't they tell it? Can't they see?
What's so special 'bout you and me?
Poor old world can't recognize
That's love light shinin' in our eyes.

Well, look at us and look again,
And maybe you'll remember when
You walked this tall and knew it too,
And the whole world turned to look at you.

Dedication

Because he is endowed with a kind of creativity that lends itself especially well to education, because he is a man of absolute integrity who invites both trust and respect, and because he is effective and efficient as well completely approachable, he is involved deeply in all phases of our education here at Gahr.

His ability to get right to the heart of any matter that concerns our school partly accounts for his efficiency. If a solution to a problem exists, he will find it.

Efficient though he is as an administrator, his good humor and personal warmth have made him easily accessible to both students and faculty members. His "open door" policy, his frankness, and his concern for anyone who needs help contributes to this "approachable" quality.

Because, as both inspiration and guide, he has been such an integral part of our life at Gahr High School, we have chosen to dedicate the 1968 Memoriae Aureae to Mr. Willard Redfern, our principal. We hope that by so doing we can at least partially thank him for all he has done and is doing for us who have been with him since the beginning of Gahr, and for those who will follow us.

Drawn,
I'm terribly sorry for teasing you about your hair all year long. But it helped pass some time in that boring History class. You look just fine with your hair as it is! I'm sure next will be just as wonderful as this and hope to share it with you in some class or whatever next year. Best of luck to you and have a great summer. Don't be too naughty!

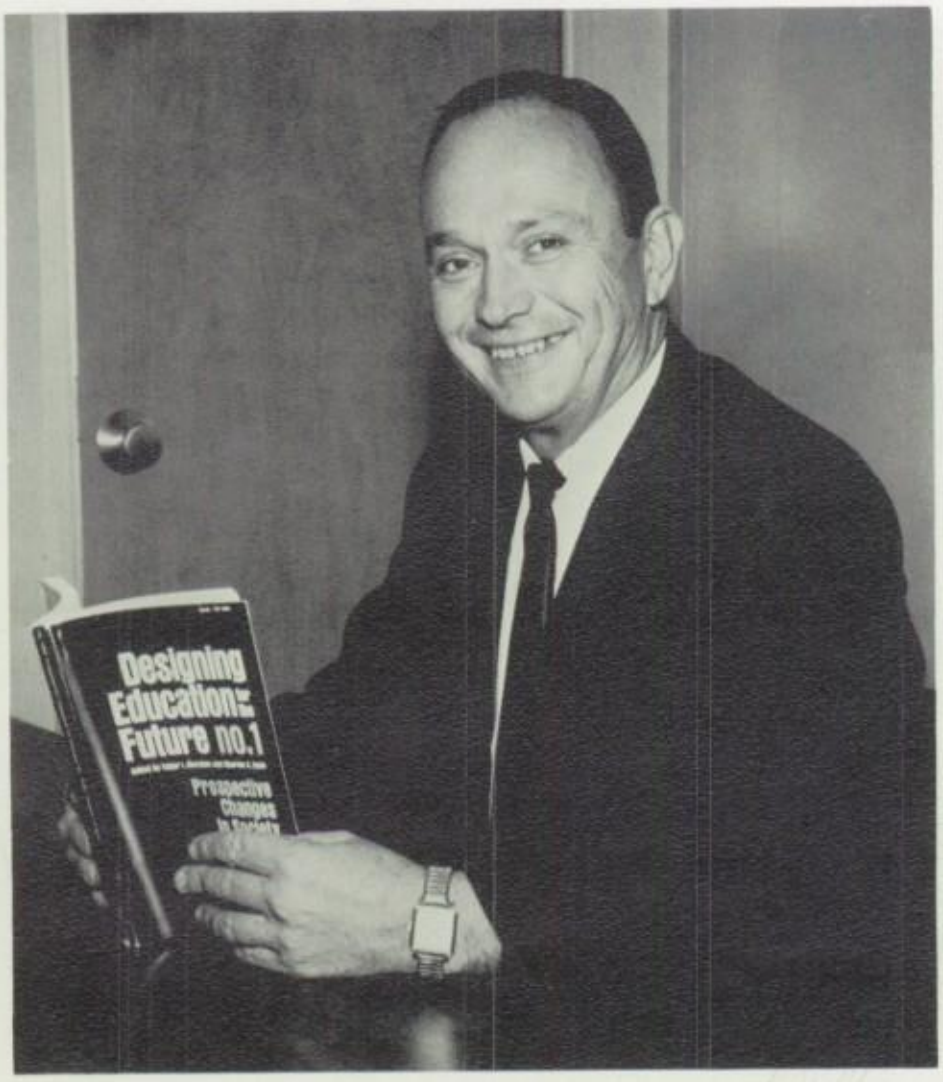
Principal's Message

It is my hope that each of you can look at these pages with the feeling of pride and satisfaction for your part in the accomplishments made this year. May each of you share and be able to claim as a personal possession the assets of a great education.

To the class of '68, I thank you for your excellent leadership. May the idea of good citizenship, fair play, honesty, and the application of the Golden Rule be your guide throughout your lives. I know I speak for the entire staff when I wish you success and happiness.

Willard Redfern



Assistant Principal's Message

Seniors, as we look at you, we would like to ask each of you to look searchingly and deeply into yourselves. Do you feel that you have tried to the best of your ability to improve yourself spiritually, intellectually, and physically? Do you feel that you have received a good education? Have your experiences at Gahr High helped you to be a better citizen and to develop a respect for the democratic way of life? Have you always been honest with yourself? Is the Golden Rule your guide? To a large degree your answers to these questions will determine how your parents, friends, and associates will "look at you." The staff of Gahr High is proud of you and we wish you success and happiness as you look to your futures.

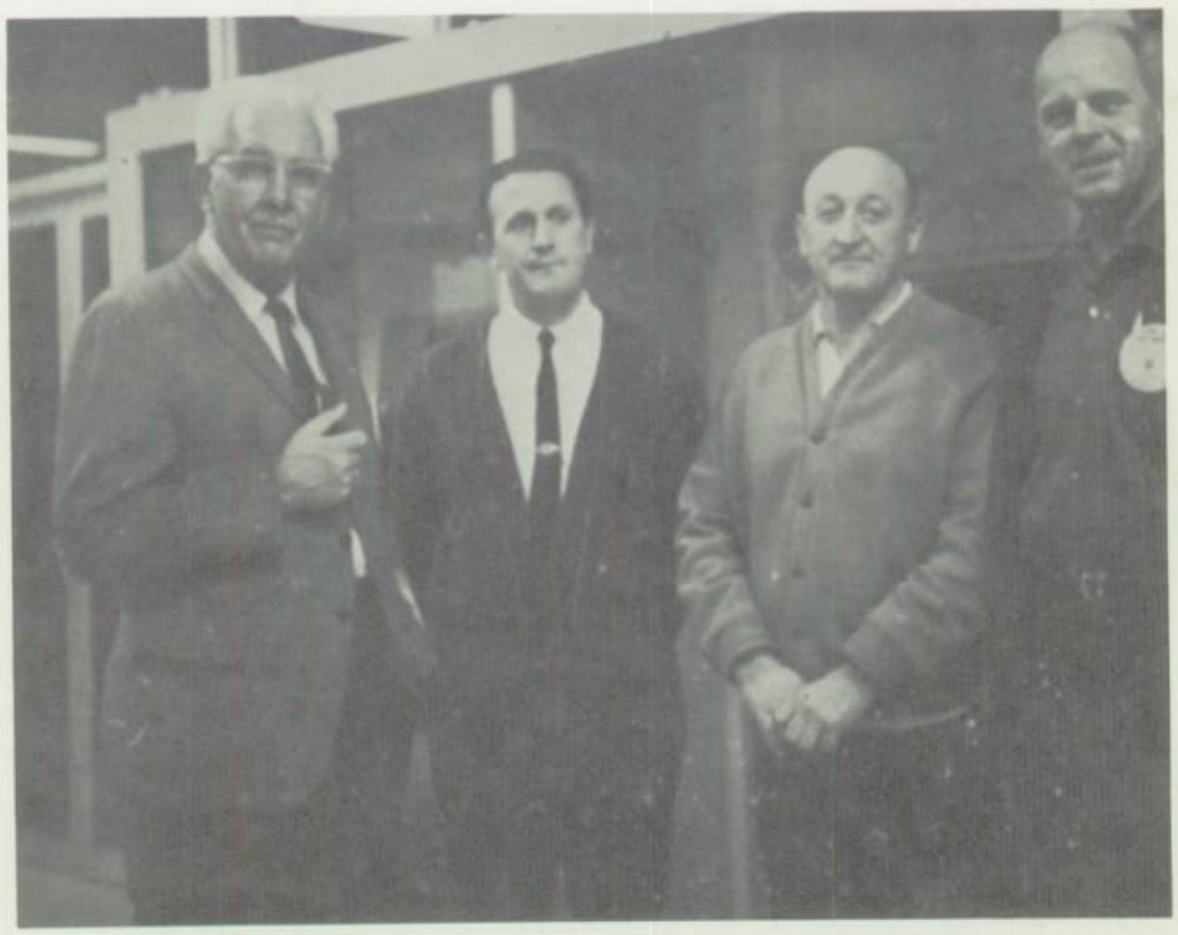
Boosters

Made up of proud parents and interested members of the community, the Gahr Booster Club has done much in terms of promoting enthusiasm and supporting us in all of our activities.

Always ready to help us, this year they have held raffles, filmed our games, and sponsored the Fall Sports Awards Night [complete with substantial refreshments]. All these things are typical activities of the Booster Club. But most important is their encouragement and interest.



J. Corcoran, L. Patrick, F. Ziegler, and J. Highstreet, active members of Gahr, were snapped while attending a game. Our photographer somehow missed getting the many other Boosters into the picture. President McDaniel was visiting Hawaii and could not be present.

Foreign Exchange Student
Jakob Brahe-Pederson

Jakob Brahe-Pederson, Gahr's Foreign Exchange student this year, was born in Washington, D.C. in 1950. He went to Denmark when he was eight months old. When he is between eighteen and twenty-one, he must decide whether to become an American or a Danish citizen. This is the main reason he decided to come to America. Jakob feels this is the most difficult decision he must make.

Jakob went to a boarding school in Denmark because his father is in the Danish Embassy in Warsaw, Poland, as an Agricultural Counselor. His father has been in Warsaw for five years, and for the first year of his life, Jakob lived with his parents behind the Iron Curtain.

To cherish his many experiences and impressions he bagan taking movies, and movie-making has become his favorite hobby. Jakob now has films from behind the Iron Curtain and films of his school in Denmark. He also enjoys design and mechanics.

Jakob has no plans for the future except to further his education. He might go into the foreign service or design automobiles.

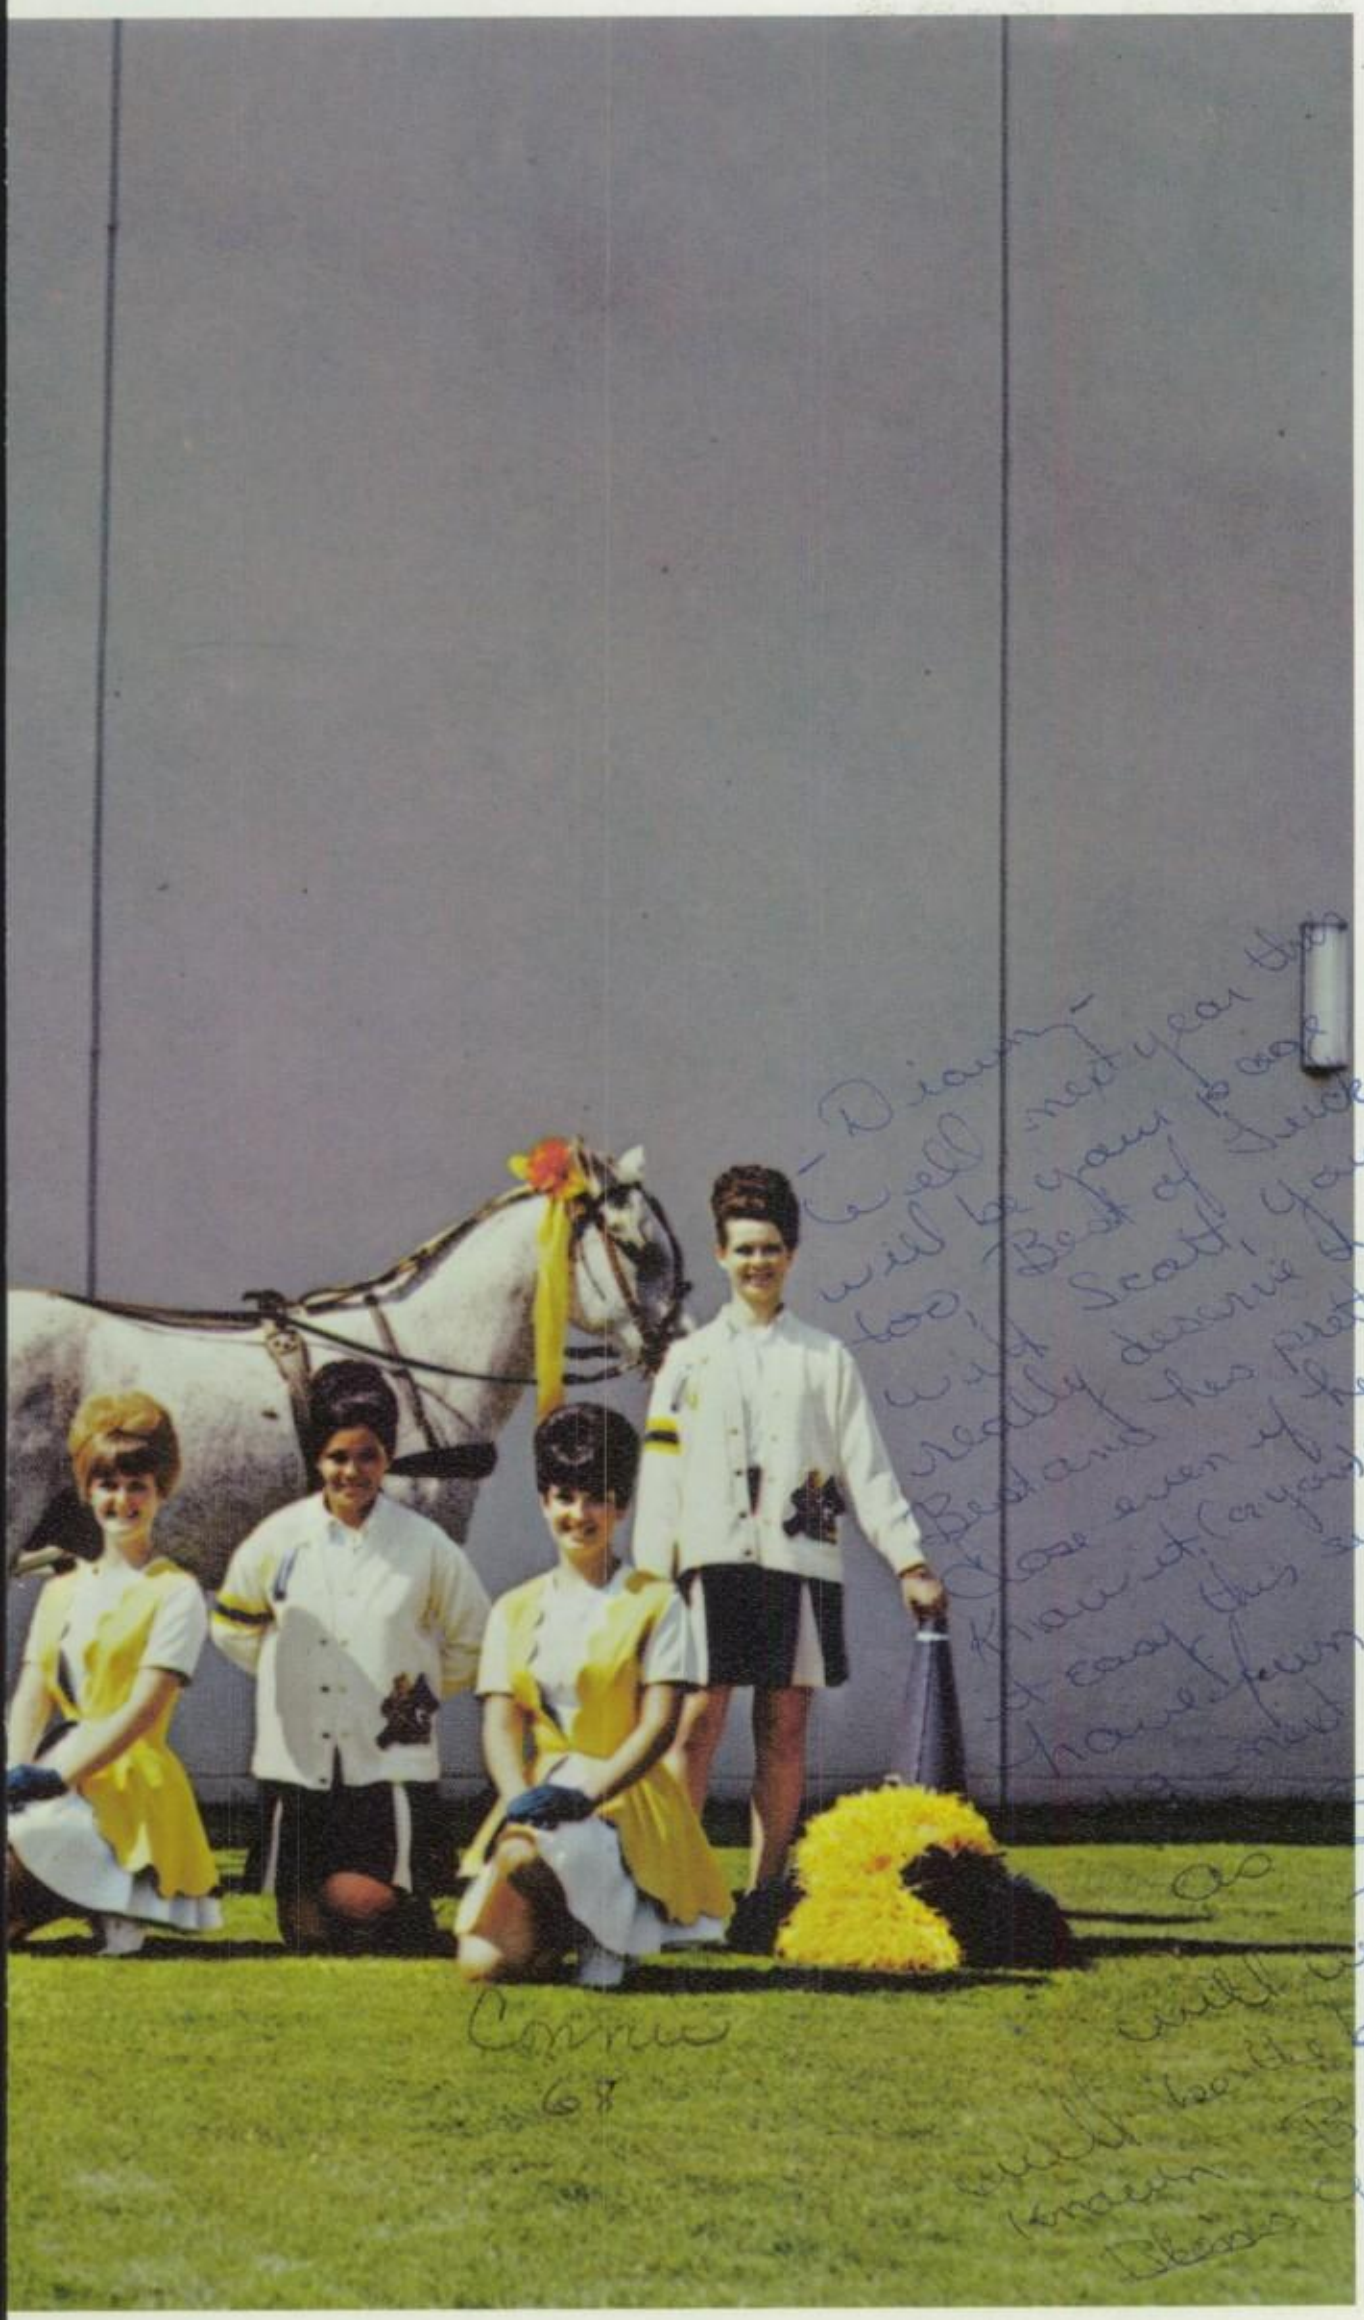
Spirit. . .



Go to our rallies and listen as our yell leaders lead the student body in venting their enthusiasm, and you'll hear our spirit.

Watch our band, drill-team, and majorettes perform at half-time, and you'll see our spirit. You'll see it in the presentation of the song-leaders' routines as they flash their blue, white, and gold.

Come to our games; watch our teams fight to win, and you'll feel our pride. You'll feel the bubbling excitement, the contagious spirit that is Gahr's. Study our players' faces after they've claimed a victory, and they stand singing the Alma Mater, and you'll be caught up in it. You'll be caught up in this all-inclusive spirit that has produced results ranging from our chariot to our reputation as a quality school.

Freshman, Stephanie Morales won the coveted title of Posture Queen of 1968 and received her corsage at the Girls' League Assembly on January 16. Introduced by Girls' League President Kathy McCarty, Stephanie shared the limelight with "princesses" from each class: Eldean Johnson, senior; Karin Hart, junior; Marilyn Sauers, sophomore; and Sue McCraken, freshman. Presentation of the queen and her court climaxed a program presented by the song and yell leaders, drill team, modern dance class, and Tijuana Trash and a week of judging by Miss Kornder, Mrs. Morgan, and Mrs. Wise, the girls' P.E. teachers.

The Crucible

The nights of December 8 and 9 climaxed six weeks of rehearsals and preparations by the drama department for their production of "The Crucible" by Arthur Miller. Financially and theatrically a success, this allegorical drama of the early witchcraft trials in New England drew the largest audiences of any of Gahr's productions. Much of this enthusiasm was evoked by the skill with which Karen Wray and Bob Lopez handled the leads. Each of the 20 cast members have good reason to be proud of the presentation.

Passionate and bitter conflicts were to blame for the tension felt between John and Elizabeth Proctor.

Modern Dance portrays the moods of Christmas.

Christmas:

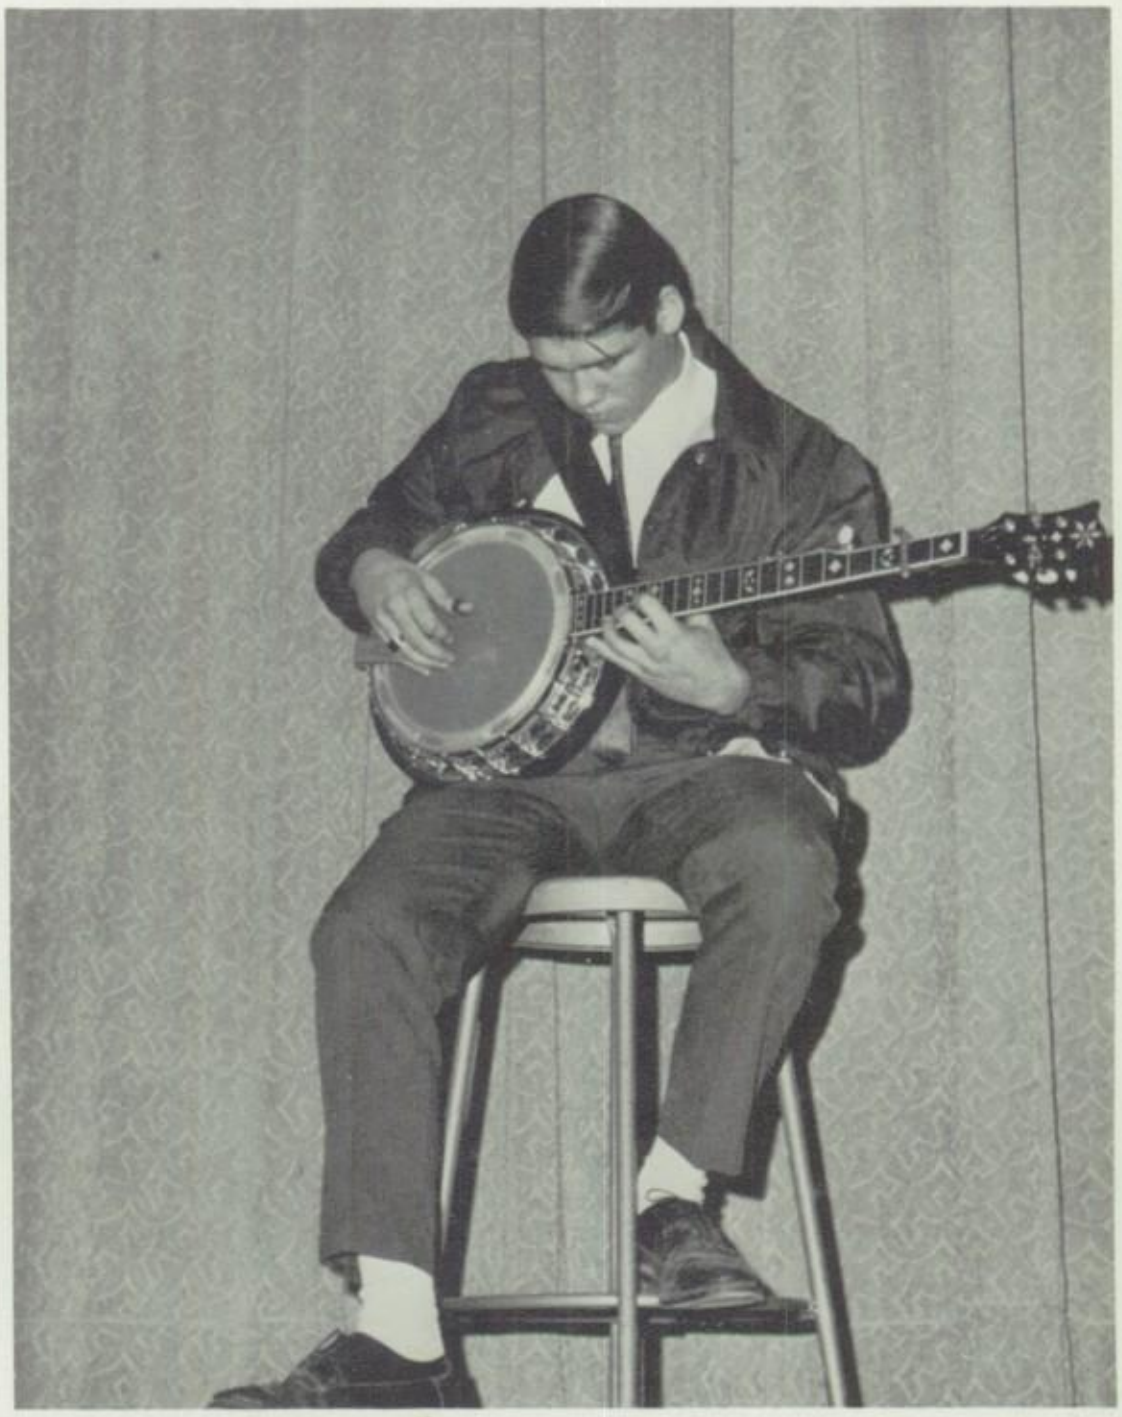
Secular and Sacred

Gahr's music department presented our annual Christmas program on December 13. The secular part of the program featured the vocal groups, and soloists Barbara Gorman, Bama Keys, Tom Bickal, and Pat Cloud. The songleaders enacted "The Twelve Days of Christmas—Hawaiian Style" to the accompaniment of the Drill Team.

The second part of the program, which emphasized the sacred aspect of Christmas, centered around Turner's cantata, "The Savior Has Come to Earth," narrated by Steve Shaffer and sung by the vocal groups with solos by Linda Arrellanes, Carol Becker, Kathy DeHaan, Linda Doyle, Barbara Gorman, Lindy Jackson, Robert Leal, Clayton Thompson, and Sue Williams. Modern Dance students performed in both parts of the show. Since Miss DeLo was unable to be present during the weeks of rehearsal, Mrs. Frederickson, her "right-hand-man," deserves much of the credit for the success of the program.

Bama and Steve sing "Walkin' in a Winter Wonderland".

Gahr's band gets into the spirit of Christmas.



Pat Cloud performs banjo solo.

Cos your beauty is next to none,
and thats what beauty means, "Diann",
So please dont ever change your way,
and God Bless You This Very Day,
for you deserve the best of all,

Events

This year there are approximately fifty students in band, all doing a great job of representing Gahr at football games, basketball games, rallies, concerts, festivals and parades.

Although football season is the high point of the year, with all the marching, popular music and spectacular half-time shows, most of the hard work comes during the concert season. This period consists of many after-school and night-time practice sessions in the preparation of classical arrangements and big band tunes which are judged at festivals and parades.

Although our Gladiator Band is classified as Class C, according to its size, it plays Class A music and does so dynamically. The band, in its performances, displays great pride and spirit that everyone respects.

Look at the members of Drill Team, and remember their marching and stepping out onto the field with a flourish of spirited music from the Gladiator Band. Recall the impression left after their performances, and think of the proud smiles on each of their faces as they sharply executed a striking routine.

Not only have they worked on the perfection of their performances for half-times, competitions, and parades, but at the same time all forty of them have maintained an admirably high standard in both scholastics and citizenship. Their standards and spirit have been upheld by the outstanding leadership of Vera Van de Brake, with the assistance of Barbara Gorman.

Mr. Stanley and Mrs. Hart, Advisers

Our senior class is a tradition-setting class. Its members are the first to establish class colors, olive green and gold; a class mascot, Charlie Brown; and motto "To Be Rather Than to Seem."

They've planted trees, installed cement benches, sponsored dances, and freed lions at rallies. They were responsible for Gahr's December 15 snowfall and for the organization of our first Homecoming. Under the leadership of Terry Hampton the class of '68 has proved itself to be a most productive one.

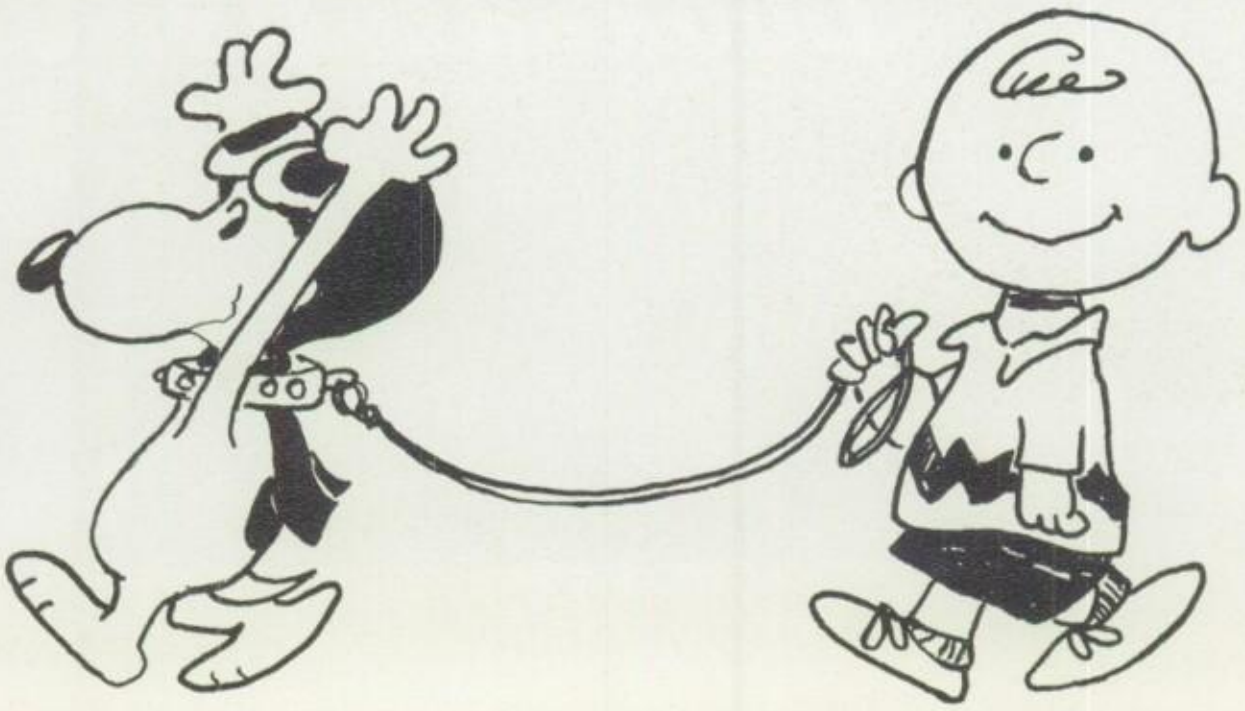
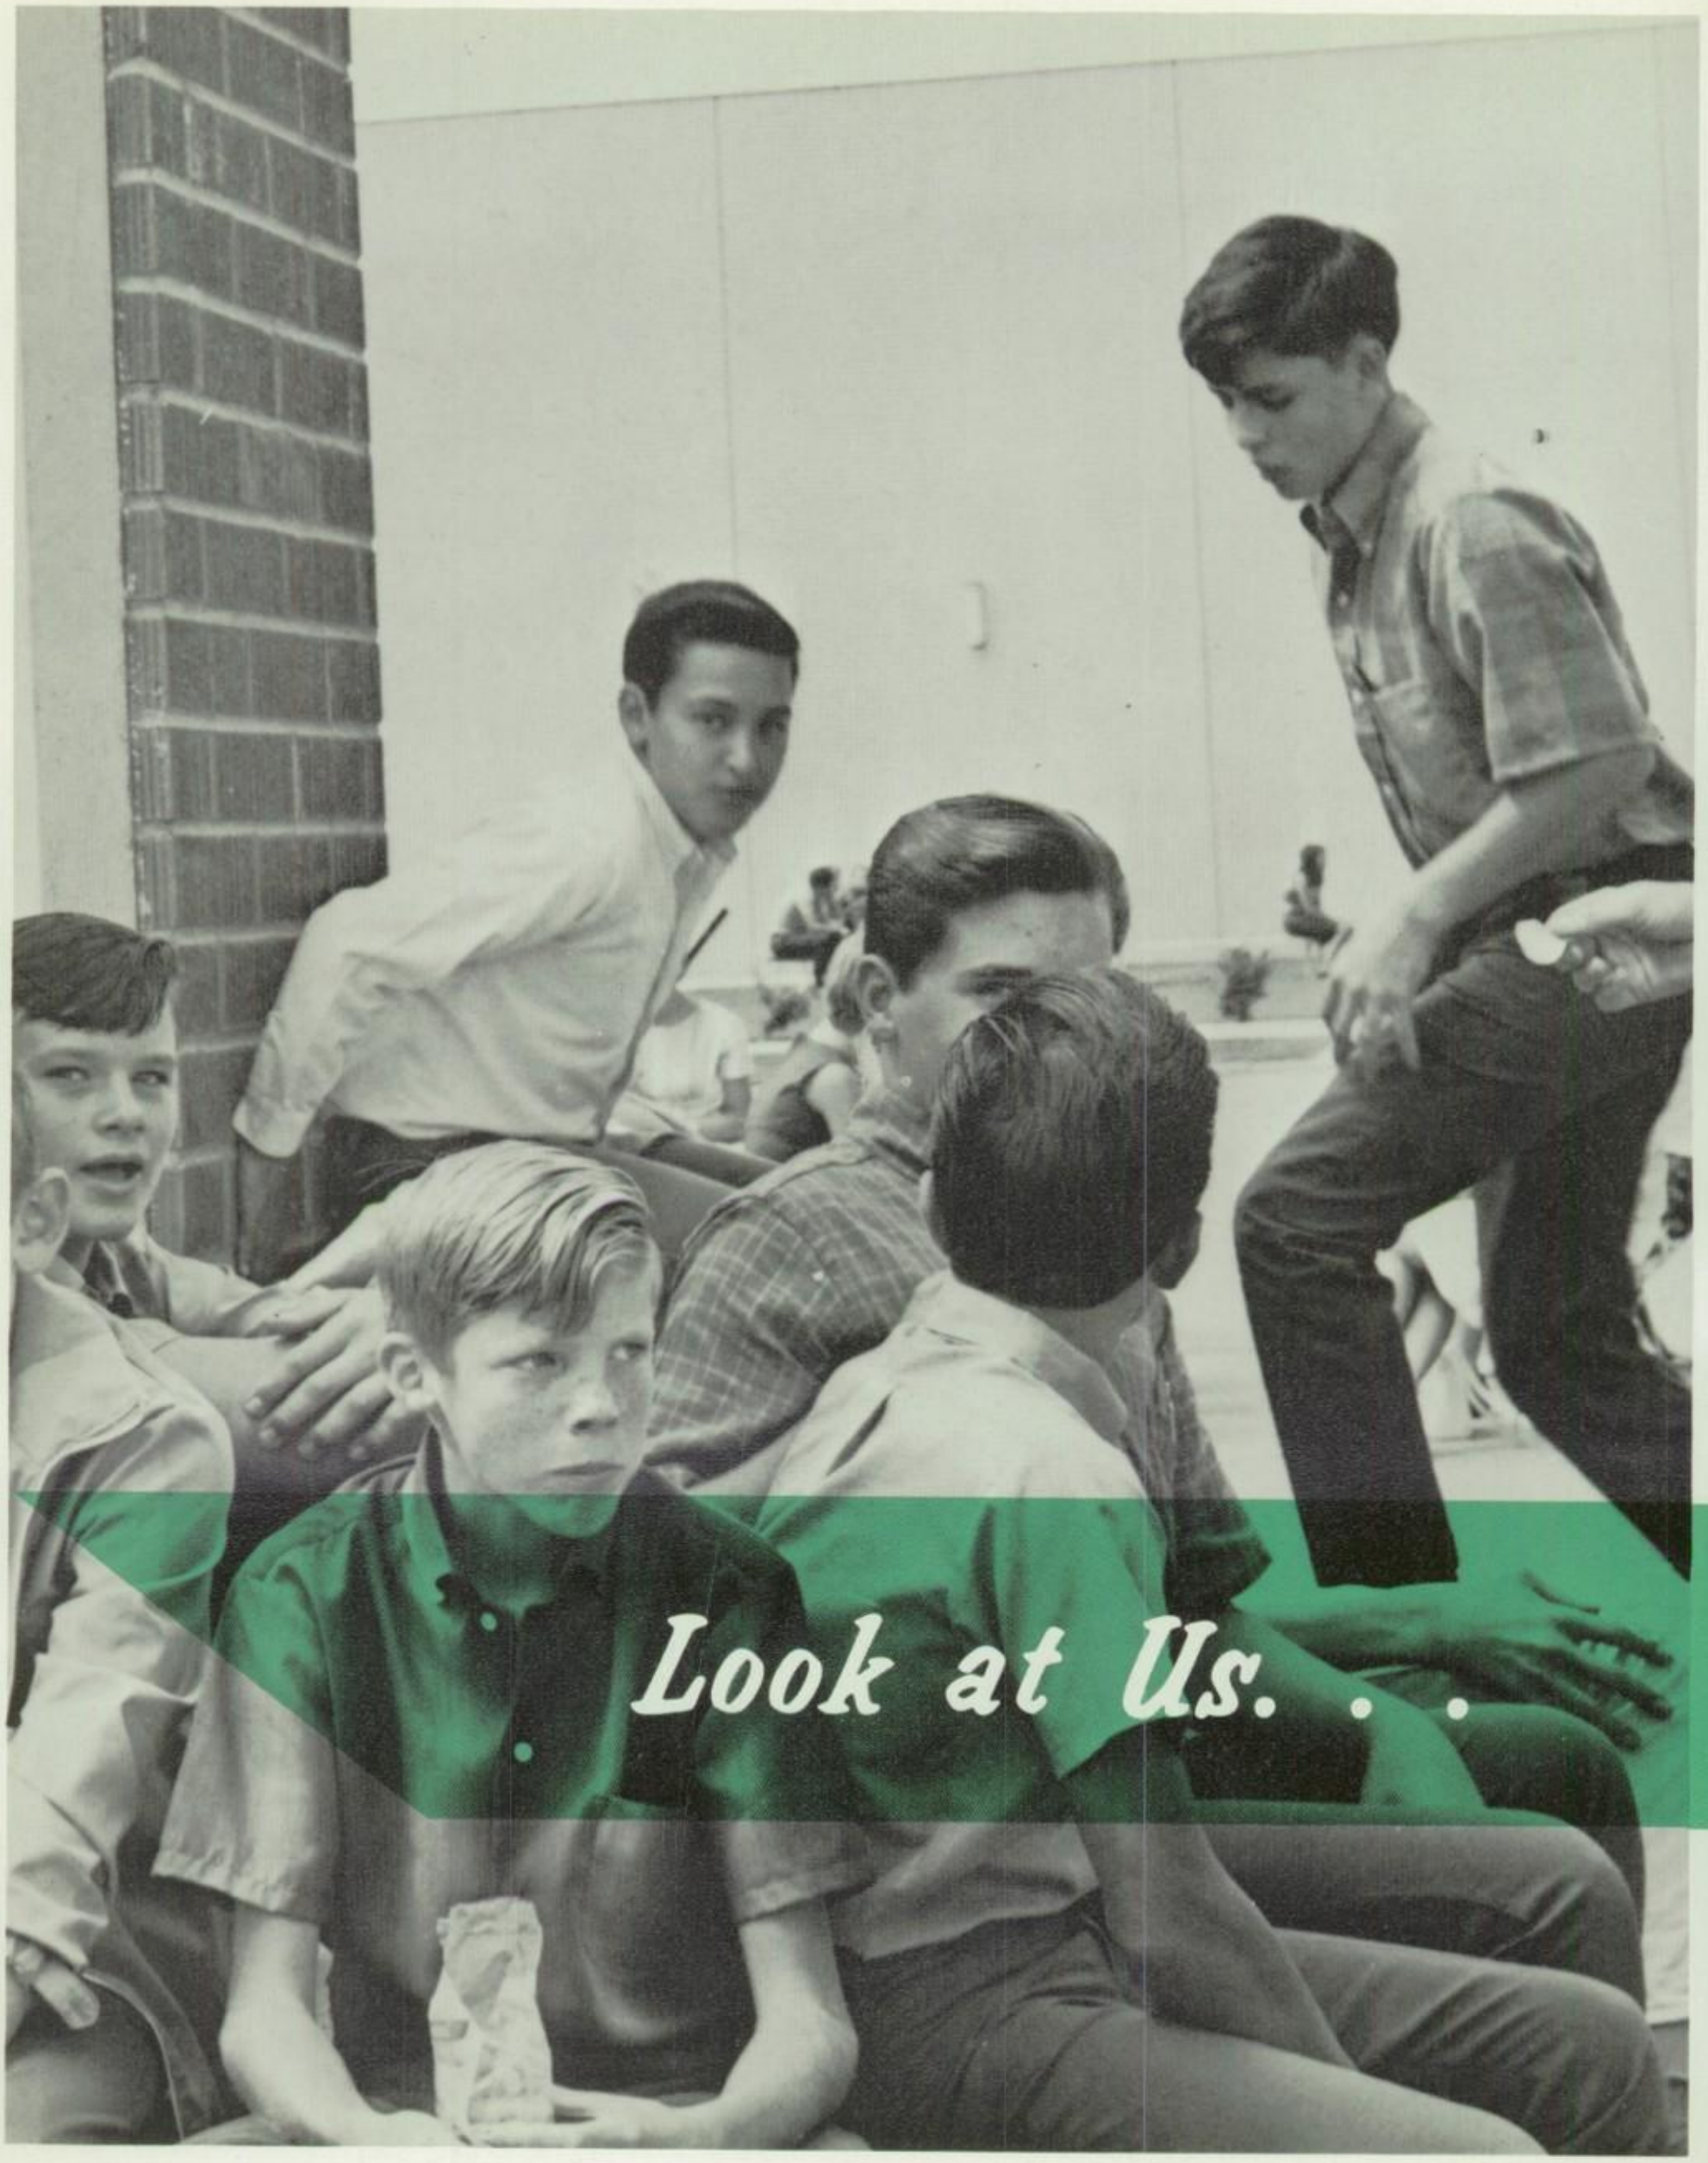
To Be, Rather Than to Seem!





Look at Us. . .

Dawn:

It's been really fun knowing you since Freshman year. I hope we'll always be good friends and I hope to see you sometime next year—the calamity. Yuk! Yuk!

Good luck always

Gahr's junior class, under the competent leadership of Robert Konishi, is well worth looking at. The juniors have worked hard to build up their treasury to finance the best possible prom (Junior-Senior) by selling candy canes, boxed candy, pennants, megaphones, and also by sponsoring after-game dances.

With the distinction of being the first graduating class to have spent all four years at Gahr, the Class of 1969 is proof that our foundation is a firm one.

Mr. McKee and Mr. Ulinder, advisers.

The class of 1971 has school spirit and pride—two qualities which are a must for every freshman class. They have sponsored some dances, a booth at the Calamity, and have sold items to raise funds for future projects. We will watch them grow and develop into a strong "upper" class.

Frosh

Cross-Country

By compiling a 17-win, one-loss record, Gahr's freshman cross-country squad became the winningest distance team in school history. The single defeat, which came in the Suburban League Finals, did not prevent the Gahr runners from capturing the league championship after going undefeated for 17 straight meets. This record included winning the Cal High Invitational in which they outran five other schools with Henry Beltran placing second, Dwayne Jordan sixth, Bill Fagundes twelfth, Todd English fourteenth, and David Wertz twenty-second.

In the league finals, the freshmen harriers still finished a respectable second. Bill Fagundes placed fifth and Henry Beltran seventh to win individual medals in those finals, while Dwayne Jordan, Todd English, and Ron Kruidhof scored team points for the Gladiators. David Wertz, Jim Zorn, Greg Ronci, Greg McInnis and Larry Hawkins pushed the scoring five to a very successful season for the frosh runners of Gahr High School.

T. Quintana, S. Thompson, R. Fredricy, S. Heacox, S. Thacher.

Wrestling is on the upswing at Gahr High School. This year the Gladiators finished with an overall record of 7-6-1 and 3-3-1 in league. The Gladiator wrestlers placed fourth in the league, and third in the league final tournament.

The most consistent performers of the year were 136-pound Craig Schueller and 194-pound Paul Ziegler. Both were league champions, and both wrestled in the C.I.F. Prelims. Stacy Cody also was a consistent winner, taking second place in league finals and going to C.I.F. Prelims. Other strong and consistent wrestlers were Rudy Campuzano, Rick Strader, Jimmy Muniz, and Paul Hernandez.

Javier Muniz proved to be the most outstanding newcomer to the squad; other newcomers to the team were Carl Yonkers, Walter Long, and Ronnie Tune.

Five senior matmen helped pace the 1967-1968 version of the Gladiator wrestling team to a rebuilding season. Although finishing in fourth place in league, the experience gained by the grapplers who will return next year is invaluable. Gahr High School should look forward confidently to future success.

Basketball, archery, volleyball, softball, tennis, badminton—each of these sports had its enthusiasts among members of Gahr's Girls' Athletic Association who came out faithfully to practice afternoons after school. To these sports, touch football was added this year.

Both sponsoring and attending playdays, our GAA has had its share of victories. As money making projects, they sponsored an after-game dance and also conducted the sale of our bright-gold Gladiator sweatshirts.
